

Dear Prayer Partner,

Greetings to you in the name of our Lord Jesus. I am excited to share with you what has been going on this past month. God has been faithful in the lives of our people and in the lives of my family as well.

Last month I asked you to pray that God would give confirmation to us concerning the plans that He has for us. Well, he certainly answered that prayer... I shared with Megan that God had placed upon my heart to expand to more homes in our community. Even though I was thinking in terms of adding another day to the schedule I decided to add just one home in a gap in my present schedule on Tuesdays. When we decided that we would seek a home to fill the gap I decided that I would go into the office of one of the AFC homes and ask the owner if he had a home that was in current need. I had to do a morning service at the home where the office is also located, so I decided that I would go into the office before I left. After the service was finished the owner came looking for me first and explained that he had a specific home where the residents were literally begging for a Christian service. He asked me if there was any way that I could fit this home into my schedule. I asked him if the slot that I was looking to fill on Tuesdays would work – he confirmed that it would, and the very next day I started my 12th weekly service. I praise our God for His continued guidance in my life, and I thank you for your prayers for confirmation to my plans. Please pray for this new home as the residents get used to me and I them.

This past month has brought a lot of new people into the homes. It has been a real pleasure meeting them all and quite the challenge remembering all of their names. This wave of people has brought into our worship services a former law judge and a retired priest. So I address the judge as “Judge Leona” and the priest I address as “Father Joe.” When I met Father Joe, I told him that it made me nervous to have him in our worship service because I was going to feel like he was going to grade my messages. That seemed to put him at ease about being a part of a Protestant worship service. Please pray for all of the new residents as they get adjusted to their new homes and acquainted with myself as their new reverend.

A gentleman who is a regular member at one of the services has just informed me that he will be moving out of his AFC home and into his own apartment. His new home is local, and so I gave him my card and told him to call me should he need anything. I suggested a good church for him to become a part of that is right around the corner from his apartment, and I prayed for him that God’s hand of grace would be upon his launch out into the world. I greatly desire that this transition works out well for him. Please pray with me over the next month that this gentleman would be blessed by God as he becomes acquainted with his new life.

Thank you for your continued support of our work. There are roughly 130 people who attend our weekly services among the twelve homes, and they would like to tell you “thank you” as well. Please know that your involvement with the Sharing Org makes a real difference in many peoples’ lives.

Have a great July!

JOHN
